Three Women in Snead Case to Be Held for Murder.

New York, Dec. 22.—Essex county, New Jersey, grand jury yesterday heard the state's side in regard to the death of Mrs. Okey W. M. Snead, whose body was found November 24 last in a house in East Orange, and it is believed that indictments were voted against the three women under arrest. They are Mrs. Virginia Wardlaw, the aunt of the dead woman, who was in the house when the body was discovered and who is in the Newark jail, Mrs. Caroline Martin, mother of Mrs. Okey Snead, and Mrs. Mary Snead, Mrs. Okey Snead's mother-in-law. Mrs. Martin and Mrs. Snead are in the Tombs, where they are held at the request of the Essex county authorities. The next step of the New Jersey authorities will be to appear before Governor Fort in Trenton and ask for requisition papers to have the two prisoners in this city taken to Newark.

TARIFF FAVORS MARCH 1

Taft Then to be Ready to Make Concessions

DISCRIMINATION IS FOUND

Against United States—The Adjustment Not Likely to Be Difficult—Taft, Knox and the Tariff Board Hold Conference.

Washington, Dec. 22.—A long consultation at the White House between President Taft, Secretary of State Knox, the members of the tariff board and members of the trade relations staff of the state department, indicated that President Taft will be in a position on March 1 next to proclaim just which countries are to be given the benefit of the minimum American tariff in return for concessions on their part. Senator Aldrich, chairman of the finance committee of the Senate, who framed the maximum and minimum clause of the tariff bill, was called into the conference. The tariff board, composed of Professor H. C. Emory, James B. Reynolds and Alvin H. Sanders, has been engaged for the last three months in seeking out tariff discriminations against the United States. It is said that these were not hard to find, and that many of them were entitled to the distinction of being termed "gross." Efforts will be made to adjust matters with most of the countries through diplomatic channels within the next two months. The greatest difficulty of adjustment is expected with France, because of the heavy increases made by the Payne bill on wines and other imports from that country.

CHRISTMAS ADVICE FROM TAFT.

He Reassures a Lad who Doubts the "Santa Claus Business."

When little Henry Gordon McMorran, the six-year-old grandson of Representative McMorran of Michigan, introduced to President Taft, during the congressional calling hour at the White House Monday, he bluntly told the chief executive that he had begun to doubt the authenticity of "all this Santa Claus business." At the suggestion of his parents he had decided to leave the matter to President Taft for settlement. The president was taken aback for a minute, but looking down on the little fellow and patting him on the head said: "Well, young man, if you write a letter to Santa Claus and on Christmas that he not only exists, but is a mighty morning find he has brought you all that you asked for, I'll bet that enough to show him fellow." The boy admitted that that certainly would be an out in favor of Santa Claus and he agreed to reserve his judgment until Christmas morning. In the meantime he is going to be very busy with letter writing.

SENATE CONFIRMS BACON.

He Will be the Ambassador to France.

Washington, Dec. 22.—The Senate yesterday confirmed the nomination of former Secretary of State Robert Bacon of New York, to be ambassador to France. Senator Root by his activities on the floor before the executive session dissipated all of the objections that had been raised against Mr. Bacon and no opposition whatever appeared. All of the other diplomatic nominations which were sent to the Senate Monday were confirmed.

A NEW ANTI-TRUST BILL.

Would Give Courts Authority to Dissolve Illegal Combinations.

Washington, Dec. 22.—An anti-trust bill giving United States circuit courts authority to dissolve combinations convicted of monopolizing or attempting to monopolize any part of trade or commerce between the states and with foreign countries and to appoint receivers for them, has been introduced in the House by Representative Martin of Colorado. The bill specifically exempts labor, agricultural, horticultural, fraternal and other associations.

MONTPELIER SEM'S CLAIM UPHELD

By Various Foot Ball Authorities, and Therefore Urges That the Troy Conference Game Was Not a Defeat.

Montpelier seminary claimed the championship in foot ball of the preparatory schools in the northern part of Vermont; Troy Conference academy claimed championship in the south. On November 20, the two teams met at Poultney to try out for the championship of the state. The game, as decided by Referee Fisher, was a victory for the Troy Conference academy, with a score of 2 to 0. There has been some discussion about one point in the game. On a punt, the ball dropped on the side line and rolled back into the field. According to rules, the ball should have been turned over to the opposite side; instead was called still in play. As a result of this error in judgment, the decision was given, 2 to 0.

The following are extracts of letters received from well known coaches and captains of college teams, who write concerning the point under discussion: "The ball should have been given to the seminary at the point where it touched the side line—which is called out of bounds—and therefore there was no opportunity for a safety. But I think they made a mistake in declaring it a safety and thus allowing the game to end. I believe the game should stand as a tie, for time was up and the game was over before an official could hardly make up his mind on the play. Surely it would be unportant to take a game on the decision of the officials when the play itself is covered so completely in the foot ball rules." Copied from a letter written by Tad Jones, an ex-captain of Yale and a former coach of Yale and Syracuse.

"As to the query you raise, if the ball strikes the side line, it is out of bounds." Copied from a letter sent by Walter Camp, the coach of Yale.

"You say the ball hit the side line and that Fisher acknowledged it. In that case, the ball should have gone to M. S. at the spot where it hit the side line. There is no argument in the case at all, so long as the officials say it hit the side line. It was a bad mistake on the part of the official and one that should be acknowledged. If this letter will be of help to you in any way, I am willing you should use it to square up the matter." Written by R. B. Thomas, coach of the university of Vermont. Copied.

"In regard to the point under discussion, I may say that I think I understand the situation exactly. Of course, it may be too late for my advice to be taken. However, facts are facts, and one of the chief facts is that any official is subordinate to the rule book. Your controversy should have ended when the rule book was produced and the official's decision proven unfair. The ball was dead and belonged to the seminary, the moment it touched the side line and at that particular point. It is a question of sportsmanship on the part of the two schools interested. Certainly the rule book alters a game decision of an official, and Troy should consent to another game or resign the championship in favor of Montpelier seminary." Written by J. A. Turner, coach of Norwich university. Copied.

"Now, in regard to Fisher and the game, I will say that I did hear him admit that the ball struck on the side line, also that he had no objection to any action you might take in regard to the matter." Copied from a letter written by W. E. Walsh, the umpire of the game at Poultney.

"When Mr. Percy Boyce of T. C. A. says that Montpelier raised no objection at the time as to the accuracy of the decision rendered in the championship game played at Poultney, he is most certainly labeling under an illusion. A protest was entered the moment it was seen what Mr. Fisher proposed to do. But as time was on just at this stage, the sportsmanlike T. C. A. agreed could not desert from beating its pants and blowing enormous horns loud enough to treat the situation in a fair and even-minded manner. Mr. Fisher stood firm enough to assure the boys from the seminary that the ball had hit the side line before he bowed down to most line, also that they had played a good game. Then he hastened away to friend Hayford's room, by the way, was T. C. A.'s coach."

"Fisher has been shown the rules, he knows he made an unreasonable break, yet he does not wish to acknowledge it. We want the facts known. Fair play is all we ask for."

(Signed) Geo. Pike, Coach of Montpelier seminary.

STEP FOR NEW RATE LAWS

Date for Hearings Set by the Committee

The White Slave Bill Is Favorably Reported—Both Branches, After Short Sessions, Adjourned to January 4.

Washington, Dec. 22.—The opening gun in the campaign in Congress for general interstate commerce legislation, was fired yesterday by the House committee on interstate and foreign commerce, which gave notice of its adoption of an order setting hearings for Jan. 18 next and daily thereafter.

It is expected that the president's message urging reforms in the interstate commerce law will be formulated during the Christmas holidays and be in shape for transmission to Congress shortly after the two houses reconvene in January. Meantime Chairman Mann's committee has adopted this order:

That all bills amendatory of, supplementary to or affecting the act to regulate commerce, or affecting the facilities for transportation, or regulations, and practices regarding transportation, be set for hearing for Jan. 18, 1910, and from day to day thereafter until said hearings are concluded unless otherwise ordered by the committee.

Mr. Mann already has framed a bill embodying his views as to the proposed legislation. The Mann "white slave traffic bill," recently agreed on by the house committee on interstate and foreign commerce, was favorably reported to the house today by Chairman Mann of that committee. The report accompanying the presentation of the measure distinctly disclaims any purpose to interfere with or usurp in any way the police powers of the state and declares the provisions of the bill to be mostly based on the power of Congress over interstate and foreign commerce. It also recognizes

GAS, HEARTBURN AND DYSPEPSIA VANISH

A Little Diapiesin Now Will Settle Your Out-of-order Stomach and End All Indigestion Five Minutes Later.

You can eat anything your stomach craves without fear of indigestion or dyspepsia, or that your food will ferment or sour on your stomach if you will take a little Diapiesin occasionally.

Your meals will taste good, and anything you eat will be digested, nothing can ferment or turn into acid or poison or stomach gas, which causes belching, dizziness, a feeling of fullness after eating, nausea, indigestion (like a lump or lead in stomach), flatulences, heartburn, water brash, pain in stomach and intestines or other symptoms.

Headaches from the stomach are absolutely unknown where this effective remedy is used. Diapiesin really does all the work of a healthy stomach. It digests your meals when your stomach can't. A single dose will digest all the food you eat and leave nothing to ferment or sour and upset the stomach.

Get a large 50-cent case of Pape's Diapiesin from your druggist and start taking now, and in a little while you will actually brag about your healthy, strong stomach, for you then can eat anything and everything you want without the slightest discomfort or misery, and every particle of impurity and gas that is in your stomach and intestines is going to be carried away without the use of laxatives or any other assistance.

Should you at this moment be suffering from indigestion or any stomach disorder, you can get relief within five minutes.

That in part the measure embraces legislation in furtherance of the international agreement for the suppression of the traffic. It says a careful examination of the constitution, the authorities and decided cases shows that the provisions, dependent upon the commerce clause of the constitution, are constitutional.

The bill, says the report, does not endeavor to regulate, prohibit or punish prostitution, or the keeping of houses of prostitution, those being matters wholly
